Understanding Big Island Oriental Medicine

Big Island oriental medicine refers to the application of traditional Eastern medical systems in the unique cultural and environmental setting of Hawaii's largest island. This branch of medicine is grounded in the principles of balance, energy flow (Qi), and harmony between the body, mind, and environment. Practitioners on the Big Island utilize diagnostic techniques such as pulse reading, tongue examination, and patient history to tailor treatments that address individual health imbalances.

The holistic nature of this medical approach emphasizes prevention and restoration rather than symptom suppression. Big Island oriental medicine often combines multiple therapies to achieve optimal health outcomes. It is recognized for its role in managing various conditions including musculoskeletal pain, anxiety, digestive disorders, and respiratory ailments. The integration of local Hawaiian healing traditions with classical Oriental medicine further enriches the therapeutic options available.

Historical Context and Cultural Integration

The practice of oriental medicine on the Big Island integrates traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) principles with Native Hawaiian healing philosophies. This fusion respects the island's indigenous culture while providing a broad spectrum of healing modalities. Traditional Hawaiian healing methods such as lomilomi massage complement oriental techniques, creating a unique healthcare experience tailored to the island's diverse population.

On the Big Island, licensed acupuncturists customize treatments according to each patient's condition and health goals. Acupuncture is used effectively for a variety of ailments including chronic back pain, migraines, arthritis, and stress management.

The Big Island's rich biodiversity provides access to both imported traditional Chinese herbs and local Hawaiian botanicals, creating a diverse pharmacopeia for treatment. Herbal remedies may be administered as teas, powders, capsules, or topical applications depending on the condition being treated.

It involves kneading, pressing, rolling, and stretching techniques to stimulate Qi flow and relieve musculoskeletal tension. This manual therapy is often combined with acupuncture and herbal treatments to enhance healing outcomes.

Instead what most of us experience is a life filled with struggles, conflict and illness. Relationshifting creates a bridge to a quantum wave guided living based upon Dr. Angela Longo's 50 years of TCM clinical experience. The relationshifting mirror-call (miracle) includes explanations and exercises using the following tools: • Bathwaving is an easy to use technique for recognizing and shifting old, unproductive patterns to our desired ones. • BATHWAVE is an acronym for (Beliefs, Actions, Thoughts, Habits, Words, Attitudes, Values, Emotions) Helps us recognize forms of patterns. • Love letters are messages we are sending ourselves to guide us to living resplendently as symptoms, relationship patterns, dreams, daily events and creations. • Triunity shows that we are actually three beings in one nest- promoting understanding of our quantum existence. • Eternalbeing pattern helps us focus on who we really are. • Muscle testing helps us access our 'googleverse', perceptions and patterns. • Shifting the eight bottom lines and our five element BATHWAVEs transforming our glow to living resplendently. Relationshifting demonstrates the fact that when you are living in the resplendent way, living is EEEZY- An Eternal, Emergent, Entanglement as a Zestful You.
