Tips for Preparing and Delivering Impromptu Speeches

Success in impromptu speaking relies not only on the topic but also on effective preparation and delivery techniques. This section provides practical advice to help high school students excel in spontaneous speech situations.

Organizing Thoughts Quickly

One of the key skills in impromptu speaking is the ability to structure ideas rapidly. An effective method is using a simple outline with an introduction, body, and conclusion to maintain clarity and flow.

- Take a few deep breaths to calm nerves
- Identify the main point or argument
- List two to three supporting ideas or examples
- Conclude by summarizing the key message

Delivery Techniques

How a speech is delivered can significantly impact its effectiveness. Practicing good eye contact, clear enunciation, and confident body language enhances audience engagement.

- Maintain steady eye contact with the audience
- Use natural gestures to emphasize points
- Speak at a moderate pace with clear pronunciation

- Incorporate pauses for emphasis and to gather thoughts
- Stay positive and enthusiastic throughout the speech impromptu speech topics for high school: A Healer and a Builder Philip W. Augustine, 2025-08-15 A Healer and A Builder traces the life and times of Dr. John R. Augustine from his early years in Kitchener, Ontario, through his medical education at the University of Western Ontario in the late 1940s and early 1950s, to his years in Thunder Bay, Ontario. A Healer and A Builder provides an intimate personal portrait of John Augustine, his family background and the philosophical foundation that motivated a lifetime of extraordinary contributions to his profession and his community. This is the story of John Augustine's development of a dynamic new clinical education program which attracted medical students and doctors to Thunder Bay and environs and provided the foundation for the creation of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (now NOSM University). It is also the story of how John and his wife Annette worked tirelessly to bring to life local arts and cultural institutions such as the Thunder Bay Museum, the National Exhibition Centre and the Centre for Indian Art. In this meticulously researched story of a life well lived, Philip Augustine, drawing on family diaries, archival research and memories of his father, gives a fascinating inside account of courtship and family life as well as medical education and health care in the last half of the twentieth century. A Healer and A Builder is an inspiring account of a notable figure in modern Canadian medical history and a charming and generous person.
