prayer for exam success for my daughter: De Angelz Dna Okoye Felix Ifeanyi, 2014-12-30
In the book De ANGELZ DNA, Felix, as a talented African writer, reformist, and human rights activist, uses his powerful lyric inspiration to create a novel with overwhelming eminence. It is a story of siblings, a boy and a girl, straining to be who they really are as they enter a world where their dreams are ruthlessly threatened, their lust partially fulfilled, and their sexual orientation rebuffed and twisted by the society that cannot compromise so-called morality over social justice. This is a story of enormous compassion which portrays the most painful alienation of people by the people who never loosen up on beliefs that profess how things should be rather than acceptance, mutual respect, and responsibility of humans to fellow humans. Anthony Gathambiri (from Kenya) prayer for exam success for my daughter: NGOs in the Muslim World Susumu Nejima, 2015-10-30 Muslim NGOs are continuously expanding their field of activities to various areas, including education, medical services, environment, aging societies, gender issues, and inter-religious dialogue. They are visible in an urban slum in Pakistan, rural development in Indonesia, and even in Fukushima in Japan to distribute hot meals among the affected people.

Muslim NGOs have become a global phenomenon. Though there have been many studies on political Islam, only a few approaches to broaden our understanding of Muslim NGOs have appeared. NGOs in the Muslim World brings together contributors familiar with the local language who have each been engaged with fieldwork for many years. Based on empirical anthropological and sociological studies in Japan, Indonesia, Pakistan, Iran, Turkey, and Jordan, they explore key issues concerning the role and work of Muslim NGOs, from the inspirations Muslims take from holy texts to the religious expectations of volunteers devoting their time to charitable causes. The book discusses the relationship of Muslim organizations with Islamic institutions, as well as their interpretations of the contemporary issues faced by NGOs within a specifically Islamic framework. As a result, NGOs in the Muslim World provides fresh insight into Muslims' faith-based initiatives concerning contemporary issues. This book will be of interest to students and scholars from diverse disciplines including anthropology, sociology, political science and history, as well as Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies.

prayer for exam success for my daughter: The Oxford Handbook of Lived Buddhism Courtney Bruntz, Brooke Schedneck, 2025-11-10 Attention to lived religion has significantly shaped religious studies and has only recently impacted the field of Buddhism. Rather than asserting a separation between real religion happening within official organizations on the one hand, and folk traditions practiced by everyday adherents on the other, the lived religion model understands the religious experience as an ongoing negotiation of personal practice and belief. Given the relative fluidity of Buddhism, a lived religion approach decenters the most significant authorities, while valuing the varied perspectives of ordinary practitioners. As the field develops, The Oxford Handbook of Lived Buddhism fills a major gap in the scholarship, offering insight into the practices, social interactions, sacred spaces, and outward expressions of the religion. As such, the Handbook will be a timely contribution, opening new possibilities for study alongside texts and institutions.

Patrice Hagans, 2022-02-23 The Courage of Success is an autobiography of how you can overcome whatever life may throw at you because, with God, all things are possible. In every area of our lives, we must possess some level of courage to succeed, spiritually, relationally, financially, physically, and mentally. It takes courage to move beyond where you currently are. I take courage to step out onto uncharted waters in faith, which is always a risk; however, when you begin to shift your thinking, the ability to conquer anything comes. Obstacles may come to block your progress and all that God had promised you, but never give up! Resilience is the key to success. "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you prayer for exam success for my daughter: Wrestling With Gods Robert J. Sawyer, Matthew Hughes, Alyxandra Harvey, Megan Fennell, and others, 2015-02-26 A mechanical Jesus for your shrine, the myths of cuttlefish, a vampire in residential schools, a Muslim woman who wants to get closer, surgically, to her god, the demons of outer space, the downside of Nirvana. The 24 science fiction and fantasy stories and poems included in Wrestling with Gods (Tesseract Eighteen) take their faith and religion into the future, into the weird and comic and thought-provoking spaces where science fiction and fantasy has really always gone, struggling with higher powers, gods, the limits of technology, the limits of spiritual experience. At times profound, these speculative offerings give readers a chance to see faith from the believer and the skeptic in worlds where what you believe is a matter of life, death, and afterlife. prayer for exam success for my daughter: In This Fragile World Ustadh Mahmoud Mau, 2023-02-06 The present volume is a pioneering collection of poetry by the outstanding Kenyan poet, intellectual and imam Ustadh Mahmmoud Mau (born 1952) from Lamu island, once an Indian Ocean hub, now on the edge of the nation state. By means of poetry in Arabic script, the poet raises his voice against social ills and injustices troubling his community on Lamu. The book situates Mahmoud Mau's oeuvre within transoceanic exchanges of thoughts so characteristic of the Swahili coast. It shows how Swahili Indian Ocean intellectual history inhabits an individual biography and writings. Moreover, it also portrays a unique African Muslim thinker and his poetry in the local language, which has so often been neglected as major site for critical discourse in Islamic Africa. The selected poetry is clustered around the following themes: jamii: societal topical issues, ilimu: the importance of education, huruma: social roles and responsibilities, matukio: biographical events and maombi: supplications. Prefaced by Rayya Timamy (Nairobi University), the volume includes contributions by Jasmin Mahazi, Kai Kresse and Kadara Swaleh, Annachiara Raia and Clarissa Vierke. The authors' approaches highlight the relevance of local epistemologies as archives for understanding the relationship between reform Islam and local communities in contemporary Africa.

prayer for exam success for my daughter: Accused Tonya Craft, Mark Dagostino, 2015-09-01 This is the true story of a woman who prevailed against the most heinous accusations imaginable. Tonya Craft, a Georgia kindergarten teacher and loving mother of two, never expected a knock on her door to change her life forever. But in May 2008, false accusations of child molestation turned her world upside down. The trial that followed dragged her reputation through the mud and lent nationwide notoriety to her name. Tonya's life spiraled into a witch-trial nightmare in which she was deemed guilty before her innocence could be determined by a jury. Her children were taken away without even a goodbye, and her own daughter was forced to take the stand against her in a courtroom. The situation seemed hopeless, and Tonya was shell-shocked and heartbroken. But that didn't keep her from finding the strength to fight. Over the course of two terrifying years, Tonya rallied to take charge of her own defense, flying across the country and knocking on doors on a desperate quest for answers, and defying her own lawyers on more than one occasion. Tonya's goal was not only to avoid conviction; it was to clear her name, and, most of all, regain custody of her children. Accused is about more than Tonya's shocking trial and fight for justice. It is the story of a mother's extraordinary love, the faith that sees her through it all, and the forgiveness that sets her free.

prayer for exam success for my daughter: Splashes of Serenity Elaine Miller, 2005-04 Mothering is one of the most joyous and also most tiresome experiences. Every mother on one day or another has sent out those S.O.S. cries, longing for just a few sacred moments to regroup and to be rejuvenated. Often, the only place in the house where a mom might capture one of these rare moments of quiet reflection is while soaking in a bubble bath, where a day's challenges can be washed away with a few splashes of serenity. In these 30 five-minute meditations, Miller restores sanity and Scripture and shares poignant, often amusing vignettes to encourage mothers along their journey. Through her words, allow the Lord to massage our tired toes with His oils of gladness and transform our sluggish steps into a joyful dance.
