prayers for financial hardship: A Code of Jewish Ethics, Volume 2 Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, 2009-02-10 "Jewish thinkers don't talk all that much about love. All too often we leave that to Christian theologians. But in this excellent volume, Rabbi Joseph Telushkin puts the commandment to love at the center of Jewish theology and experience. This is a book that will change the way you think about—and practice—Judaism." –Professor Ari L. Goldman, Columbia University, and author of The Search for God at Harvard "Love your neighbor as yourself" is the best-known commandment in the Bible. Yet we rarely hear anyone talk about how to apply these words in daily life. In this landmark work, Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, one of the premier scholars and thinkers of our time, gives both Jews and non-Jews an extraordinary summation of what Jewish tradition teaches about putting these words into practice. Writing with great clarity and simplicity as well as with deep wisdom, Telushkin covers topics such as love and kindness, hospitality, visiting the sick, comforting mourners, charity, relations between Jews and non-Jews, compassion for animals, tolerance, self-defense, and end-of-life issues. This second volume of the first major code of Jewish ethics written in the English language is breathtaking in its scope and will undoubtedly influence readers for generations to come. It offers hundreds of practical examples from the Torah, the Talmud, the Midrash, and both ancient and modern rabbinic commentaries—as well as contemporary anecdotes—all teaching us how to care for one another each and every day. A Code of Jewish Ethics, Volume 2: Love Your Neighbor as Yourself is a consummate work of scholarship. Like its acclaimed predecessor, which received the National Jewish Book Award, it is rich with ideas to contemplate and discuss, while being primarily a book to live by. Nothing could be more important in these strife-torn times than learning how to love our neighbors as ourselves. The message of this book is as vital and timely now as it has been since time immemorial.

prayers for financial hardship: Praying For An Answer Garth Andrews, 2019-08-27 Jesus encourages persistent prayer (Luke 11, 18). James advocates fervent prayer (James 5). Paul of course both models and instructs ceaseless relentless prayer (Ephesians 6:18, 1Thesalonian 5:17). Prayer is important both for life on earth as well as afterwards (Revelation 5:8 & 8:3-4). Unanswered prayer, though, really focuses the mind, considerably more so than answered prayer. Praying For An Answer is neither a book on prayer nor a manual for praying. Its real objective is to encourage people troubled by the lack of answers to their prayers to consider some kind of scriptural diagnostics to ascertain the cause. It seeks to make the case that no prayer goes unanswered and provides some Biblical conditions that might be used in the diagnostics. It considers “men of like passion as we are”, ordinary people “who prayed earnestly” unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein (Acts 14:15 & James 5:17); and had their prayers answered. Some of the conditions, identified by scripture as significant for answered prayer involve our approach to God, our attitude during the prayer, the integrity of our relationships, our response to scripture and of course how we behave subsequently. Although belief is foundational and fundamental in prayer all too often it is either ignored or discarded resulting in our prayer not even leaving the starting block let alone being answered. For some people it is preferable to allow the answer to be a casualty of their failure to forgive rather than savoring the sweet success of God's loving response. This further reduces, rather than increases, the likelihood of their prayer either being heard or answered. It takes so much more than a pretty pious posture to achieve even a modicum of success of an answer to our prayer. The book encourages patience; to wait for the answer rather than prematurely declaring a prayer unanswered. All too often when we are praying we fail to realize that the conditions may have changed, the prayer may have already been answered or a change in tactics might be called for by the Holy Spirit; mainly because we fail to listen whether before, during or after the prayer. And finally, 'when you have done all to stand', and all the diagnostics should prove absolutely useless, it is important that we recognize that God is attentively listening to the cries of, and faithfully rewarding, those who diligently seek him. So, simply pray.

prayers for financial hardship: 21 Days of Prayer Dr. La Toshia Palmer, 2023-11-15 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." - John 1:1 God wants you to experience His Supernatural presence and the manifestation of His Written and Rhema Word in Your life through the Power of the Holy Spirit-Jesus Unlimited. Confessing God's Word during prayer releases our provision, our protection, and our power (2 Corinthians 9:8; 2 Peter 1:3; Job 38:41; John 10:10; Luke 12:7; Psalm 91; Isaiah 54:17; Ephesians 6:13-18; James 5:16). When we pray God's Word, He hastens (to be alert, sleepless, to be on the lookout) to His Word to perform it (Jeremiah 1:12). The Bible also tells us that God's Word does not return to Him void-it will accomplish what He pleases, and it shall prosper in the thing for which it was sent (Isaiah 55:11). This book encourages you to release the Supernatural Power of God's Holy Spirit in your life by praying, decreeing and declaring the Word of God. When you activate the Word of God by faith, the Name of Jesus will be exalted, miracles will happen, repentance will take place and people will be brought into a new way of life, which is salvation through Jesus Christ. Prayer is our God-given right and privilege as children of God. With the authority and power that Jesus has given us, we have the right and the privilege to make a decree according to the Word of God. When we take time to declare the Word of God by faith and with the authority, anointing and the Power of God's Holy Spirit over ourselves, family members, children, grand-children, spouse, marriages, relationships, finances, ministry, church, business, this world and its systems, leaders and governors of authority, individuals in need, people who are going through difficult times, our neighborhoods, cities, regions, nations, and countries, a significant change will take place. The Supernatural Power of God Almighty Himself causes His Word to manifest!
